Atea was listed on the Oslo Stock Exchange in 1985.

The Atea website is www.atea.com

History [Atea website]

The Company was founded in 1968 and has since then been part of a large number of mergers and acquisitions. In 2009 the Ementor Group and all of its subsidiaries not already called Atea changed name to Atea.

For further information on Atea please see the Company website.

The Headquarter is located in Oslo, Norway.

Outlook [Q3 report, 22 October 2009]

During the third quarter of 2009 the global economic slowdown continued and affected the capital expenditures in the Nordic and Baltic markets. The macroeconomic turbulence during 2009 is expected to affect the Group's organic growth in 2009 even though there are signs that the slowdown has bottomed out. However, Atea is expecting to continue gaining market shares in its home markets. Almost 50% of the Group revenue currently stems from the public sector. The general development will contribute to new structural opportunities, especially in terms of strategic acquisitions.

According to IDC the total Nordic IT infrastructure market targeted by Atea, is expected to decline by 3.8% in 2009. Hardware sales are forecasted to decline by 10.1%, software to grow by 2.4% and services to grow by 0.5% in value. Important technology trends, such as Unified Communication, Mobile Infrastructure Solutions, Virtualisation, Software Asset Management, Desktop Lifetime Management, Windows 7 and Green IT, areas in which Atea has established a strong presence, will help fuel IT investments going forward.

Atea initiated a cost reduction programme for 2009 at the beginning of the year with defined cost saving targets for each country and it is well underway and ahead of the targeted full year effect of MNOK 130.

When the market and economic times get more challenging it is favourable to be a large and leading entity. Atea is expecting to continue gaining market shares during 2009. This will make Atea an even more solid and stable business partner for existing and new customers. It is expected that the organic development will be supplemented by growth through acquisitions in 2009 and 2010, as Atea has the financial strength and clear intent to play an important role in the ongoing market consolidation.
