

NORDIC EQUITY DERIVATIVES TOTALVIEW-ITCH

NASDAQ OMX Derivatives Markets represents the third-largest derivatives exchange in Europe, trading approximately 600,000 contracts per day. Firms that invest and trade in this critical market require the fastest and most reliable technology to deliver complete market transparency.

Launched in 1985, the Nordics were the first in the world to start an electronic options market with integrated clearing. Today, we offer a fully integrated Nordic and Baltic derivatives trading and clearing platform in Swedish, Danish, Finnish, Icelandic, Norwegian, Baltic and Russian options and futures. All derivatives are cleared via NASDAQ OMX®'s renowned Genium INET technology, an integrated clearing and back-office system.

PREMIER OFFERING

The NASDAQ OMX Nordic Derivatives product suite provides listing details, trade information and derived information as well as best bid/ask prices in flexible entitlement packages. Nordic Derivatives TotalView-ITCH, the most comprehensive offering, displays all the bid/ask prices in the order book (market-by-order), real-time listing details, trading and order book information.

DIRECT ACCESS

Delivering Direct Access with the Lowest Latency

The Nordic Derivatives TotalView-ITCH data comes directly from the Genium INET trading system, with no holdback timers, making this the lowest-latency source for Nordic derivatives information.
